

GIRLS LIE TOO

Says she can't go out tonight again
Her sister's sick, she's gotta baby-sit
Yeah, that sounds like a pretty good excuse
Now you didn't hear any of this from me
But things aren't always what they seem
Brace yourself, this may come as a shock to you

Girls lie, too, We don't care how much money you make
What you drive or what you weigh

Size don't matter anyway

Girls lie, too, Don't think you're the only ones
Who bend it, break it, stretch it some

We learned from you

Girls lie, too

We can't wait to hear about your round of golf
We love to see deer heads hanging on the wall
And we like Hooter's for their hot wings too
Other guys never cross our minds
We don't wonder what it might be like
How could it be any better than it is with you

Girls lie, too, We don't care how much money you make
What you drive or what you weigh

Size don't matter anyway

Girls lie, too, Don't think you're the only ones
Who bend it, break it, stretch it some

We learned from you

Girls lie, too

Interlude: 7 measures

Yeah, girls lie, too, quiet We always forgive and forget
The cards and flowers you never sent
Will never be brought up again

Girls lie, too, Old gray sweatpants turn us on
We like your friends and we love your mom

And that's the truth

Girls lie, too, Yeah that's the truth

Girls lie, too

No, we don't care how much hair you have
Yeah, that looks good
Comb it over like that Grrrrrrr
