

SOMEBODY'S KNOCKING

Intro: 4 measures

Somebody's knockin' should I let him in
Lord, it's the devil would you look at him
I've heard about him but I never dreamed
He'd have blue eyes and blue jeans

Well, somebody's talkin he's wisperin' to me
Your place or my place, well which will it be (ooh)
I'm getting' weaker and he's comin' on strong
But I don't wanna go wrong

He must have tapped my telephone line
He must have known I'm spending' my time alone (ooh)
He says well have one heavenly night
My fevers burnin' so he ought to be right at home (aah)
